Ref. No.13/68. Date 6th Sept. 1968.

To
General KM Cariappa,
President, All India Council of Sports,
Ministry of Education,
NEW DELHI.

Dear General Cariappa,

Thank you very much indeed for your letter of 23rd August 1968. We are extremely happy to know that you are taking a keen interest in our activities. I was intending to come and see you personally in New Delhi with a note of introduction from Mr. Vijay Merchant, but since I have recieved your letter, I have postponed my coming there, till it becomes necessary.

We are holding a training-cum-selection camp for the provisionally selected participants in Bombay from 15th to 29th September at the Parsi Colony Gymkhana, Dadar. On 30th of September, there will be demonstration of skills in swimming for these patients at the Y.M.C.A.Swimming Club, Bombay Central. If you happen to be in Bombay at that time we would very much appreciate your visit to these places as it would serve
